2008 All Stars:
Marshall Cohen,
Cohen & Perfetto LLP

Three years ago after having been a partner at several prestigious law firms in Manhattan, Marshall Cohen decided it was time to put his name on his work, literally. Cohen, along with Louis Perfetto and Jennifer Padnick, founded Cohen & Perfetto LLP, a boutique real estate law firm with clients nationwide, which is rapidly closing in on its first billion dollars in deals.

After starting his career in the real estate department of Fried Frank, Cohen eventually moved on to become co-managing partner at a large New York law firm, where he oversaw the real estate practice. During his many years of practice, Cohen also taught several real estate courses, for many years at Harvard and MIT and later Columbia Law School, where he earned his J.D. in 1976. He received his bachelor's degree from Rutgers College and a Ph.D in American History from Harvard.
